Foreword

Canning's great return to form was the feature of last week's games, they showed all their early season form and surprised all the critics.

Armada are back in the four and should have been firmly entrenched however they still face a very hard task. Victory today is all important. Kwinana should have performed better.

Canning ran Kelmscott ragged and as already stated are on the way back. They have recruited and are a very solid combination. This side could be the "dark horses" of the finals. Kelmscott, no doubt expected to win this one and so cement their place in the four, they now face a harder job than first envisaged.

Kalamunda had their sixth win of the year, what a great improvement. They are showing the way for the lower clubs to follow and there are still several wins about this season. Mandurah after their upset win last week returned to their usual form. It must be very frustrating to their supporters and Coach.

Gosnells were not impressive in beating Thornlie although they are still the side to beat. Thornlie showed some improvement however they will need to recruit heavily for 1978.

Maddington should have won more convincingly against Kenwick who did not show the same desire as the previous week. The "Bulls" should be scoring a lot higher than their totals each week with the talent they have available.

TODAY'S GAMES

MIGHTY ROYALS

Last week the reserves carried on their unbeaten run this season with a tremendous win over Maddington. It was a tremendous win because of the unknown composition of the team until the last minute. Fortunately, we have enough depth in the club to overcome these setbacks and proved it by defeating Maddington. Unfortunately John Riseley was not well and a big THANK YOU to Brian Thompson for filling in as coach for the day. The Edna and Sonny Robins Award for the best player went to Darryl Ogg for his magnificent effort in the ruck. He rucked throughout the whole game and must be nearly over his injury by now. Peter Hughes also played well and won himself an award. The Mick Walker Award for the best backman went to Jeff Champion for his tremendous game of the half back flank.

Unfortunately the league side again went down to Maddington. The scoreboard didn't really show how close the game was. We matched them in the second half, but just could not make up the difference that they gained in the first half. We had another setback at half time when John Riseley was too sick to carry on for the rest of the game. Fred Selnor played another tremendous game, rucking really well and taking some fine marks around the ground. Ray Winduss, John Ballantyne and Ken Staines also played good games. Doug Backhouse won himself a shirt from Mainardi & Co.

All raffle books and monies should now be in the hands of the social club. If you have outstanding books please get them in.

To all players and supporters, don't forget the end of season trip away. It sounds like it's going to be a good weekend.

The Thornlie Club are our hosts today so let's win the double and stay behind and enjoy their hospitality.

HAVVA

KOUGARS

Four in a row — that was the result of last week's game against Mandurah taking our number of wins to six making this our most successful season since 1971 season. Last week also saw the club record its third double for the season.

A ten goal first quarter was too much for the visiting team and the result was never in doubt. This quarter also produced team work of the highest order resulting in an irristable brand of football. The team coasted for the rest of the game, to kick our highest score for the season. Great games by John Rose, Marty Wattleworth, Jeff Bingham and Glenn O'Rourke.

The reserves were lucky to win! Playing poor football and being down three goals at three quarter time, they to their credit, managed to

TALK OF BULL

The games against Kenwick last week were particularly noteworthy to Bulls supporters for two reasons. Leo "Rooster" Jarvis played his one hundredth seconds game for Maddington, and Dennis Commetti made a welcome return to the playing field after a six week absence.

"Rooster" has shown, over the years, what courage and determination can do in football. It is significant that this year has been his best ever, by the fact, that he has played the majority of the season with the league side.

Unfortunately, on this occasion the seconds teams were not able to record the upset of the season by beating the undefeated Kenwick side, although the aggressive and spirited way that they approached the game indicated the respect they have for "Rooster" and his efforts for the Club.

Best players in the reserves were Brian Turner, "Fred" Maverick, Alan Bank and Mark Schmook.

Dennis Commetti's presence on the field was the boost the league team needed to down the improving Kenwick side. This was a very important game to us in view of Kenwick's recent good form and it was one we had to win. It was pleasing to see that the players still retain the flare for a challenge and can produce the good when it is required most.

Dave "Duds" Reynolds played an exceptional game in the back pocket and together Laurie Maggs formed a very solid full-back line. Steve Jancey was effective as a rover, and Gary Smith played soundly at half-back.

This week we are hosts to Armadale, and extend to all their players, members and supporters the invitation to join us for a drink after the game.

In closing, a word of appreciation to one of our patrons, Mr. Jim Miles, for the kind gesture of donating a few cartons of beer for the players after taining last Friday week.

fight back to snatch a one point victory, however, we cannot be happy with the standard of play, and coach Syd Jackson will no doubt demand a better effort from his players today.

Today's game for the league is its first true test for a number of weeks as we have just played the teams below us. Victory today is not only possible, but very probable. Our team is far stronger than when we last met, and is playing far better, and if the same application is displayed today, as we shown last week, then it will surely be "five in a row".

To the Kelmescott players, officials and supporters, we look forward to your continued support at our after game Social at the Wattle Grove Hall, after the game.

THE KNIGHTS NOTES

Another game — another very disappointing result. After a good first quarter in which we matched Armadale in spirit and general mid field play we once again lapsed and were completely over-run by an efficient Armadale side. Congratulations to the Demons and best wishes to them for the finals. It's good to see a new side in the battle for final honours.

Best players in a very uneven league side were Geoff Groenberg, John Lange, Mick Indich and Danny Roberts. A few others to battle hard were Alan Draggett, John McBride, Dave McGlade and Alan Baker. Unfortunately there were two reports from the game. Geoff Groenberg and John McBride were both reported for abusing the umpire.

Once again the seconds team restored some respectability to the club with another fighting win. Unlike the league side they had many good players and it was hard to differentiate between them, Garry Ross, Sandy Muir Les and Steve Smith "Constable" Trinder and George Woods all turned in excellent games.

A disappointing aspect of last Sunday was the fact that when awards were presented after the game only four of the eight recipients were present to receive them. I would appeal to all players to remain behind at our final home game to receive their awards if winners and to acclaim their team mates if not.

The response for help in building the club rooms has so far been excellent and a lot has been achieved in a very few weeks. At the moment it is difficult to predict an exact finishing date but if the weather remains kind and there are no unanticipated holdups eight to ten weeks should see the project completed.

DEMONS DIGEST

1977 65 YEARS YOUNG

This week, for the third week in a row we play away, this time to Maddington, home of the Bulls. Let's hope Leevo remembers to bring his steamroller!

Last week at Kwinana, the League side notched a percentage boosting win, with some 90 or so clear points over the Knights. I must say that the Knights were not up to the standard that we associate with this club. The game produced a marked improvement over the Mandurah game, with good teamwork, willingness to run and think positively about the next move. A well earned win you Demc you all deserve a pat on the back. I personally impressed with the effort of McGreggor, a good 100 minute non-stop persistent performance I thought.

The Reserves lost again, but not without improving their overall performance and effort. Coach Johnnie Rowe was pleased with the show, adding that there is still more room for improvement.

MID-SEASON BALL. A great turnout. One of the best we've had. Thanks to all those who patronised the ball, and to Armadale Meat Mart, and Mathmotors for their generous prize donations. The band "Adam Four" was just what the doctor ordered. A very special thanks to the ladies who catered for the supper, it was a first class show, and the many compliments were well earned. You can't beat home cooking any time!

MELISSA DAVEY. This is the name of Brian and Sally Davey's recently born daughter. With their son Shane they now have the "double". Congratulations to you both Brian and Sally. Melissa, your old man's nickname is not as bad as it sounds!

DATES TO NOTE: Sunday 25th September. Champagne Breakfast F & B vote count at the "Kemmy". Saturday 1st October. Wind-up Dinner/Trophy Presentation and Cabaret at the Armadale Hall. Sunday 6th November. Annual General Meeting in the morning at Gwynne Park (also pay-day for players!)

P.S. I've just heard the results on the radio. The league side is back in the four! No be pedalling today fellas!

SEASIDERS

Last week's league game against Kalamunda was most disappointing. After the previous week's win and excellent training nights, we were looking forward to a close game against Kalamunda. This was not to be. Our players lacked any desire to win the ball right from the start. Kalamunda took the game away from us in the first quarter with virtually no opposition. Surely, we must have more fight individually and as a team than was shown in last week's first half!

The second half of the game was much improved with a few players showing much more determination and desire to win the ball. However, this did not make up for our poor showing overall. There are many players who must adopt a real desire to win the ball at all costs and be prepared to chase and pressure the opposition. Our last half revival last week and the game against Armadale are indications that we have much more ability than we often show.

Today, let's see our true ability combined with some real determination and pride in our individual and team performance. At home we are capable of giving Gosnells some real competition. Let's finish the season fighting!

Good players were hard to find last week. None tried harder than Rusty Renfrey. He certainly is a fine example to all young players. Others to do well over four quarters were Norbert Fandry, Dave Ellis, Brian Doy and Les Barrett.

The reserves were unlucky to be beaten by a point after leading for most of the game. After being down in the first quarter it was pleasing to see them fight hard to be in a winning position. Unfortunately the game was lost. Perhaps just that little extra from every player on the ground early in the game may have saved the game.

Best players in the reserves were Barry Nie, Paul Wooltorton, Brad Kay, Greg Reynolds and Greg Cockram.

Today we welcome the Gosnells players, officials and supporters to Mandurah. We hope you will all join us in our rooms after the games.

THE HAWKS

The Mighty Hawks were untroubled on their home ground to register a double victory against Thornlie last Sunday.

The League team were again slow to start, however all players put their game together much better in the second half and looked more like the side we are accustomed to.

Best players in the league were Ken Reynolds, Trevor Williams and Len Marsh.

The Reserves Side performed magnificently outscoring the opposition by some thirty goals. Best players for the Reserves were Brian Antunovich, John Lennon and John McSwain.

The Under 19's proved their superiority against Armadale with the smallest of margins — winning by only 2 points. The game was hard fought throughout and the Hawks improved their game and teamwork especially in the second half. In this game Jeff Pelham won the Ampol Award for best player on the ground and Paul Pink and Bob Dalton were runners up. As long as the team continue to work hard and put in a little extra effort the reward of winning the flag is definitely within reach.

THE TIGERS

Canning's premiership prospects soared last Sunday when the Tigers registered a resounding 93 point victory over recent boom side Kelmscott. Regaining the run on style of football that saw our league side commence the season with six consecutive wins. Ron Wilcox's charges left the opposition floundering after a brilliant first quarter, scoring 7.2 and leaving the home sides section of the scoreboard blank.

With the recovery of several of our injured leading players, Ron has now reverted to an effective, if somewhat unusual method of team placing. A talented group of mobile kick - getters who are capable of making our side a Grand Final threat interchange at will and with devastating effect. Obtaining maximum benefit from available players is one of the secrets of successful coaching and in this aspect Ron as few peers.

Awarding votes in this game was an unenviable task, with every player performing well, but mention must be made of Terry Freemantle, who assumed the brunt of the ruck work after Peter Vulich received an injured tight and was once again the foundation for the teams following division. Many players received votes, but perhaps those more prominent were John Moore, Gary Fenner, Steve Goodall, Craig Nock, Terry Eaton and Bill Archibald.

Congratulations also to our Seconds, who could be considered unlucky to lose by 2 points and put in a tremendous and courageous four quarter effort. With only four games remaining to play it is quite within the realms of possibility that this side could win all four and finish the season on a satisfying note, despite being unable to make the final four.

Our Seconds should realise that with the League team securing a finals berth for only the second time in the last decade, it is vitally important that application amongst this team be kept at a maximum. A repetition of our mid-season injury situation could find several of these players called on to carry our colours through the finals. In any case, injury situation or not, there must be several of our Seconds players poised to enter our league side on their current form alone. Tony Hynam, Vic Cizeika and Johnny Vlahov (if he can be termed a "Seconds" player) are highly proven league footballers and will almost certainly re-enter the side when opportunity presents. Food for thought for those named in today's first 20!

THE BULLDOGS

Last week saw the Kelmscott reserves side consolidate their place in the four in a tense last quarter struggle. Although four points were gained from the result the endeavour will have to increase if the side is to be a force in this years final round. Best Players were: M. Hansen, I. Clark and N. Rose.

The league side turned in a lethargic performance and were completely outclassed by a much fitter and more desperate side. Best Players were: A. Hildebrandt, S. Robinson, B. Miles and K. Turner.

The U/18's continued on their winning way defeating Maddington 10.6 - 8.5. Best players were: R. Chapman, S. Hansen and N. Mews.

SOCIAL NOTES:
Cabaret at John Dunne Hall on 5th August. Admission $3 single BYOS. Players and supporters are urged to attend all remaining functions, particularly if they are interested in going on the end of year trip as participation could enhance their chances of being selected to go.

This week's games against Kalamunda are vital to the club. Whatever the result players and supporters are requested to attend the after game function at Wattle Grove Hall.

THE LIONS

Unfortunately the reserves team were beaten by a better side. Best players hard to find.

It was the reverse in the league game (beaten but not defeated) with courageous, talented performances given by 20 players, (equally good performance from supporters) with newcomer Kenwood in everything, battler Denis fighting hard, D.P. working well, but overall team-work 100%.

SOCIAL: put your name down for the re-union dinner Sat. Aug. 27th — details Robyn, Bob and Social Committee. Support this nite and help build club moral for next season.

LION OF THE WEEK:

Neil Corker (the rocker rookie) another of our younger but courageous league players (the belle of the recent ball and a wizard with the knock, knock jokes) giving steadfast service in the backline, and a good club supporter, (bachelor) worth having around. Rock on!

Keep Roaring
Happy Days
